

DAILY BULLETIN

VOLUME:2 NO:237 DATE: November 25th, 2022

ROSE ORIARAN- ANTHONY REAPPOINTED SECRETARY TO INEC

The Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC) has announced the reappointment of Mrs. Rose Oriaran-Anthony as Secretary to the Commission for a second and final term of four years, in accordance with Section 8 of the Electoral Act, 2022.

The reappointment which takes effect from December 7th 2022, was made known by the Chairman of Information and Voter Education Committee (IVEC), Festus Okoye, in a statement on Thursday.

Rose Oriaran-Anthony hails from Edo State. She holds a Bachelor of Education (B. Ed) degree in Language Arts from the Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, a Masters degree in Public Administration (MPA) from the University of Abuja and another Masters degree in Public Communication and Public Relations from the University of Westminster, in the United Kingdom.

She is the second female Secretary of the Commission and the first to have her tenure renewed. She is a long-term staff of the Commission and has served as Public Affairs Officer, Assistant Director (Information and Publicity), Deputy Director (Voter Education) and Director (Civil Societies Liaison). Her last posting was Administrative Secretary in Delta State before her first appointment on 5th December 2018, as Secretary to the Commission.

INEC APPROVES GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCT OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS, ELECTION EXPENSES

In order to promote compliance to the provisions of the law by political parties as they go about their electioneering activities, the Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC), has approved the publication and release of the Guidelines for Conduct of Political Rallies, Processions and Campaigns, as well as that of Finances and Election Expenses of the parties, candidates and aspirants.

The Chairman of the Information and Voter Education Committee (IVEC), Festus Okoye Esq, who made this known in a statement issued on Thursday, said the two documents had been uploaded on the INEC Website and social media handles, while copies will be made available to political parties, civil society groups, the media and other critical stakeholders.

“All political parties were reminded of their obligation to submit the required reports to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of Section 90(4) of the Electoral Act 2022 and the applicable sanctions for failure to comply as provided in Section 89(4) of the Electoral Act”, the statement read.

Editor-in-Chief: Victor Ayodele Aluko

Editors: Chinwe Ogbuka & Chukwuemeka Ugboaja

Reporters: Nathaniel Gana